

Concepción School Anthem Lyrics

I

At the sound of the Caribbean breeze
Beneath a robe of foamy waves
My school waits for me eagerly
To carve my future and honor

II

As a sailboat leaving harbor
I set sail looking for you OH Concepcion!
Fearless of winds or storms
Shaping my knowledge persistently

III

Chorus
Let's proudly shout and sing full of faith and
endless joy
At home and field with freedom
I am a CONCEPCIONISTA

IV

In your housing with vehement joy
Learning and love for life
It is my hope and ageless goal
Concepcion: that is your lemma

V

Every day I come up to your shelter
As a son seeking well from his mother;
Your colors, gray, red and white are justice,
love and knowledge

VI

Chorus
Let's proudly shout and sing full of faith and
At home and field with freedom
I am a Concepcionista
